ALL WELCOME!

Film: Gallipoli (2005).

Introduced and Moderated by: Ebru Akcasu and Michal Láznička (Turkologie, Ústav Blízkého východu a Afriky).

Summary: This Tolga Örnek documentary reconstructs the epic World War I battle between the Turks and the combined forces of Britain, Australia, and New Zealand. Using actual diaries and other historical material that survived, the story is told from both sides' points of view through interviews with experts, narrated firsthand accounts, reconstructions, and 3-D computer simulations. The filmmakers also make use of location shooting and underwater photography to enhance the experience.

Event Details: Thursday, 15 March 2018, 19:10 (P429).

Post-Movie Drinks and Discussion venue: To be announced at screening.
